

January 5, 2015

To Whom It May Concern;

This letter is to confirm the relationship between Global University (GU), with international offices in Springfield, Missouri, USA, and Global Institute of Theology (GIT) in Malta. GIT is GU's official and recognized identity in Malta. As such, GIT is fully authorized to represent and do business as GU and on its behalf and to represents its interests in Malta.

As GU's formal and recognized entity, GIT is fully authorized to use, distribute, represent, and publish GU educational curricula in formats and versions it sees fit, under those guidelines, restrictions, and requirements such as has been established by GU. GIT will inform GU regarding all curriculum uses and adaptations, including providing thorough supporting rationale.

As GU's legal identity in Malta, GIT represents ownership of the intellectual property as represented in GU's curricular materials and content. This representation extends to GIT's authorization to present, publish, and administer GU's curricula in such manner as may be required to qualify GIT students for NCFHE certifications.

Regards,

John ("Jack") Nill, Ph.D.

Provost

Global University
Springfield, Missouri, USA